

Town & Country

ESTABLISHED IN 1846

WHAT'S

NEW

What are you looking forward to this fall? T&C asks some of its favorite people....

WHAT'S

NEXT

"Polo season in Argentina! Campeonato Argentino Abierto de Polo, November 20 to December 11."

—Paul Irvine, Director, Dehouche, bespoke Latin America travel experts

• "Asia fashion weeks. My only problem is deciding which ones to attend. Shanghai, Singapore, New Delhi, Mumbai and Hong Kong are my top choices."

—Catherine Heald, Co-founder and CEO, Remote Lands, luxury Asia tours

"Having had major surgery this past May and a summer of taking it easy and seeing pals, I am champing at the bit to return to The View in the fall and getting my two cents in. You name it, we will argue about it." —BARBARA WALTERS, JOURNALIST

"HEADING BACK TO SAN FRANCISCO, WHERE I GREW UP, FOR THE FALL ANTIQUES SHOW. THIS FOUR-DAY CHARITY EVENT KICKS OFF WITH A GREAT PARTY ON OCTOBER 27, BENEFITING THE GROUP ENTERPRISE FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS. I AM THE HONORARY CHAIR THIS YEAR!"

—DEREK LAM, FASHION DESIGNER

"Trends this fall? The pantsuit for women, polished and chic. Events? I'm always excited about the Crystal Charity Fashion Show in Dallas, on September 10, at our flagship location. We're honoring Akris's Albert Kriemler!"

—Ken Downing, Fashion Director, Neiman Marcus

"We're installing two stunning Yoshitomo Nara sculptures on Park Avenue this fall. Very exciting!"

—YVONNE FORCE VILLAREAL, COFOUNDER, THE ART PRODUCTION FUND